

Adema, Unstable

I wanted to know, who you really are
I needed the chance, to stitch up my scars
I'm closer to you, than I was in the start
Come dive right in, and tear me apart

I'm trapped and we can't get along
I thought that I was strong
We are so unstable
And then I'm strung up on your touch
But I won't give you up
We are so unstable

I wanted to learn, about the dark side of you
You bring me down, like a bottle of pills
I hate the way, that you make me feel
I keep coming back, I never get healed

I'm trapped and we can't get along
I thought that I was strong
We are so unstable
And then I'm strung up on your touch
But I won't give you up
We are so unstable

You're so unstable
You're so unstable
We're so unstable
We're so unstable

I'm trapped and we can't get along
I thought that I was strong
We are so unstable
And then I'm strung up on your touch
But I won't give you up
We are so unstable

I'm trapped and we can't get along
I thought that I was strong
We are so unstable
And then I'm strung up on your touch
But I won't give you up
We are so unstable

So unstable
I'm so unstable
So unstable
I'm so unstable
