

Adhesive, Character-Builder

Traditions tells us to stand in line and be good citizens, to take pride in our loyalty go through life with a sense of duty and a sense of accomplishment
Our constitution says that obedience builds character...
The freedom to vote is just a big fucking joke, it only gives us a new set of leaders to keep the power up at high and to fan the flames of complete stagnation
Our constitution says that obedience builds character...
Our blind obedience and willing to accept their regulations cannot lead anywhere else but to the destruction of our own individuality
Our constitution says that obedience builds character,
THAT'S A FUCKING LIE!!!
