Adkins Trace, Hold You Now

Adkins Trace
Big Time
Hold You Now
I can't take back the things I said
To you in the past
Or make you forget the reasons why
We didn't last

I'm haunted by what might have been Still I can't change who I was back then

But if I could hold you now you'd see I've turned myself around and now I'm someone you'd be proud to love I'd do all the right things, make promises That I'd keep It'd hurt too much to let you down And in my arms there'd be no room for doubt If I could hold you now

It's funny how this empty room Makes it all too clear When I let you leave A part of me just disappeared

But if I'd known then what I've come to know There's no way I could have let you go

But if I could hold you now you'd see I've turned myself around and now I'm someone you'd be proud to love I'd do all the right things, make promises That I'd keep It'd hurt too much to let you down And in my arms there'd be no room for doubt If I could hold you now

But if I'd known then what I've come to know There's no way I could have let you go

But if I could hold you now you'd see I've turned myself around and now I'm someone you'd be proud to love I'd do all the right things, make promises That I'd keep It'd hurt too much to let you down And in my arms there'd be no room for doubt If I could hold you now

If I could hold you now If I could hold you now