

Adrian Trojanowski, I am the lost one

If I could write some words to the world
I would write how I feel badly
Of that I love but nobody loves me
I would write about that
I am the lost one
I am the lost one
I am the lost one
In my history
I know nothing
I don't believe in happiness
If I could write some words to the world
I'd write about heart pain, all that badly times
I'd write about my history, I'd write about my life
I'd write about that I love but nobody loves me
I am the lost one
I am the lost one
I am the lost one
In my history
I know nothing
I don't believe in happiness
I am the lost one
I am the lost one
I am the lost one
