

Adult., Strange Mistakes

What in the world were you thinking
Become so obsessed with your modern life
Over calculation, what can it provide
You gotta change directions, if not too occupied
Let's get prepared for the prime time
The makeshift stories and the passersby
Lips just seem to fill the bill
Rattle some bones
Now you feel fulfilled

What Did - You Do
Strange Mistakes

No sooner than now, it's happened to you
Always in the front row, hoping for disaster
Stand right here for a better view
It's no surprise, you're all subdued

Maintain your disdain
Make your new mistakes
In a trance like, trance like state
You make your strange mistakes
