Adult., Turn Your Back

Turn your back Catch it, Catch it -Fast Turn your back Scratch it, Scratch it - Now Turn your back Cut it, Cut it - Out Turn your back Shut it, Shut it - Up

Falling forward on your face Do you ever feel misplaced You can't find it cuz you lost it You can't see it cuz you crossed it All these words, They sound the same In the end a losing game Slowing up and speeding down I'm out of time, I'm out of tune Parking lots filled with cars Sirens ringing in your ears Get the point get out of here Turn your back, Heart attack

You sleep in a house, With built in stairs You're a corporate champion, But no one cares Tie your shoes so you don't trip I can't go out, I think I'm sick The clock stopped ticking long ago I read it in the paper don't you know Could've been me Could've been me Could've been you Ne ne ne Ne ne ne Tapping tables in four ways Obstructing habits with your gaze Might as well slip away Turn your back, I'll attack
