

Aeon, Irrigation Of Passing Souls

the day when my breath will expire the universe will too, so it means never inside you all I will light my fire a fire that will forever burn... for me

I possess your souls, souls of emptiness I'll repair your minds and make you my slaves the sky is red like blood, my heart is black and def I bless you all, under my sword, I'm fierce, I'm cursed, I'm the lord

I'm the eternal ruler, and so I will always be the same cause I will burn inside you all as an eternal flame my veins are burning, and blasting out the light now you can see what is left of my crying heart necromancer is what I am with enthusiasm you pronounce my name I'll ensoul you all inside, I gave you my sign I can do whatever, cause you are all... mine
