

Aereogramme, I Don't Need Your Love

Honestly
We shouldn't be
Here

Honestly
We shouldn't be
Here

We should be dancing
We should be friends
Celebrate our victory
All over

Maybe time will tell
Only time will tell

But I know
I don't need your love
I don't need your conscience
To base my life upon

Your cotton mouth and sores
Your blistered tongue will know
All and nothing
All and nothing

So please
Glad that you made it
So please
Glad that you called
So please
Is this what you wanted
After all (go home)

So please
Glad that you made it
So please
Glad that you called
So please
Is this what you wanted
After all (go home)
