

Aereogramme, When You Wake Up

Sleep now, leave your life behind
Obey the ocean
Surrender to the tide
Find some shelter from the storm
The moonlit ways become your own
You find me waiting
You find me waiting when you wake up
When you wake up
When you rise
I've seen you wake a thousand times
From wrestling with your dreams

Sleep now, leave this world behind
Swim forever
Find a place to hide
Dig yourself into the sand
I hope you know and understand
You'll find me waiting
You'll find me waiting when you wake up
When you wake up
When you rise
I've seen you wake a thousand times
From wrestling with your dreams
