Miscellaneous

Afrodite

you think you are so hot you own the whole wide world that everybody depends on you you think that you are their muse their only hope and cure so why make it hard when you could understand that nobody is your fan that you are nothing more than a tiny hore

Chorus

I've always thought of you as the biggest bitch i ever knew so why think you are a God when all you are is a slot

No matter what I say you
