

Afrojack, The Spark (ft. Spree Wilson)

A little bit of misfit dancing
A little bit of jojo dancing
A little bit of thoughts of mine coming out the mind of this midnight rambler

I can't wait til these tunes of mine get me out of this local jam
Let's get up up on that big stage now
Show the world just who the heck I am

Ever thank you if it all goes right
You got something that could change your life
Use that moment just to show your life
Everything is gonna be alright?.

Clashing through the stars, alright
I'm screaming til the stars collide
I'm tellin everybody, that's right
We all got the spark, we all got the spark tonight

Takin back the way we are
'Cause that's just the way we are
I'm crashing through the dark, we're alright
We all got the spark, we all got the spark tonight

They say if you look around for something hard enough and you just might find it
And there's some around who wanna keep you down but Shawty don't be blinded
Hey! Push back doin and you do all that, this summer drum scene
Time to time you stay upside down
Show these people what you really mean

Everything that you could lose your mind
Could it be the big dream you'll find
No more waiting cuz it's almost time
Everything is gonna be alright?.

Clashing through the stars, alright
I'm screaming til the stars collide
I'm tellin everybody, that's right
We all got the spark, we all got the spark tonight

Takin back the way we are
'Cause that's just the way we are
I'm crashing through the dark, we're alright
We all got the spark, we all got the spark tonight

I'mma feel this forever
Or ever if it's just tonight
And we could see the world is great
Even when I close my eyes
Tell me keep myself from falling
Tryna get this the life
I gotta do this more often
Well, well maybe tonight

Clashing through the stars, alright
I'm screaming til the stars collide
I'm tellin everybody, that's right
We all got the spark, we all got the spark tonight

Takin back the way we are
'Cause that's just the way we are
I'm crashing through the dark, we're alright
We all got the spark, we all got the spark tonight
