Nobody Knows My Name Lyrics

Afro, man I know that you live in Mississippi now, but why in the hell did you leave Los Angeles man

Walking down the street without getting shot takes everything you got(That's right). A bullet proof vest

Sometimes you wanna go where nobody knows your name (I know that's right).

They call the cops because you can. (Up against the wall black boy).

I wanna be where I can see, nobody will recognize me. I wanna go where nobody knows my name

Where the hell is that?

Haddysburg. Mississippi, next exit. In stereo where ever available. Baaakaaaa. Deaaaaaa.
