

Afromental feat. Andy Stelocks Ninvalle, Pray 4 Love

I was young, she was young we were together like the birds in the sky watching stars, catching time holden hands haven't thought for a whole life there is a pain cause I've gone away I never did confess it to world and how would like to have all around love back around me
I pray for love
every day and every night
I pray for love
and i need you by my side x2 passing years, running days and all i have is my memories floating I try to love, try to forget I try to hide, nothing works for my loneliness and i don't wanna pain cause one way and now i will confess it to world that i would like to have it all around love back around me
I pray for love
every day and every night
I pray for love
and i need you by my side x2 I pray every day and nihgt cause i'm a believer if you were the answer I would never decieve you I don't want to be trusting but i come asking I asked it cause i think it's fantastic if you'll be my girl and i will be your man will you see the way preciuos is i courteously sin (kulturalnie grzesze) I'm a dramatic, fanatic, loveaddict, creative, static all my knees in the attic but on the stop i must have it
I pray for love
every day and every night
I pray for love
and i need you by my side x2
