

After Edmund, Clouds

The clouds are coming in again
This always happens to me
And I am caught between
I'm caught between Your love
And this world that's against me
I know that You're not that far away
Hello, hello
I'm not alone
You make daylight from grey
Hello, hello
You're always lifting me above the clouds
Trouble's on the way today
Why does this happen to me
You see
That I'm left mixed up
Mixed up between Your love
And this world that's against me
You are the face of love
You are the face of love to me
I'm living here above the clouds
