

After Edmund, Like A Dream

Sometimes the silence speaks
When I don't have the words
Whispering the wonder of Your love
And in my ear a melody
More beautiful than words
And I can hear the promise of Your love
Like a dream coming true
I believe in You
Don't let me go
I'm hanging on to You
Heaven with humanity
A miracle of love
Grace that found me broken in my needs
And the mystery of our chemistry
I'm never good enough
But still I find You're everything I need
Forever and ever
I'm nothing if I'm not holding on
