

After Forever, Emphasis

The game is over, time has taught life
Open your eyes and embrace our so-called paradise
All the notions and thoughts
Devise a way to make it yours
The enigma of a reason
How can life be what you want it to be
Find the emphasis in your own reality
Deviate from the search with episodic glimpses
Of a spectrum no one can see or feel, nor declare
Slowly become aware life knows its prophecies
Find the emphasis in your own reality
In all life you see
A sudden shifting of events
What's coincidence, what's faith?
The ambiguity makes the sense of our destiny worth searching for
What can it induce?
If our being was omniscient?
There's so much you'll never know, but
Your life will be what you want it to be
Find the emphasis in your own reality
