After Forever, Emphasis

The game is over, time has taught life Open your eyes and embrace our so-called paradise All the notions and thoughts Devise a way to make it yours The enigma of a reason How can life be what you want it to be Find the emphasis in your own reality Deviate from the search with episodic glimpses Of a spectrum no one can see or feel, nor declare Slowly become aware life knows its prophecies Find the emphasis in your own reality In all life you see A sudden shifting of events What's coincidence, what's faith? The ambiguity makes the sense of our destiny worth searching for What can it induce? If our being was omniscient? There's so much you'll never know, but Your life will be what you want it to be Find the emphasis in your own reality
