After Forever, Leaden Legacy

I can"t look behind because I'm living in the past Tears without emotion are filling up the unbridled hours

We cannot be What you expect from us We cannot see through the glasses of despair Evade the leaden legacy

Those who separate and join the opposite do not see that that will get them nowhere Can't you understand it is a similar manipulation Wake up and see the light

Doomed to wander in repressed emotions This imaginary refuge restrains me from awakening

We cannot be
What you expect from us
We cannot see through the glasses of despair
Evade the leaden legacy

Those who separate and join the opposite do not see that that will get them nowhere Can't you understand it is a similar manipulation Wake up and see the light

Fear of penance Doomed to sycophancy

Doomed to sycophancy...
