

After The Fall, Mirror Mirror

Chorus:

Mirror, mirror

Am I just like you?

Mirror, mirror

We look the same but is it true

Mirror, mirror

Sees through idle dreams

Mirror, mirror

It never comes its never been

As all the people gaze

With starry eyes

The mirror reflects

A wish for a disguise

Chorus

You're just another clone

In a world that has no shame

In other words

It's you that is to blame
