

Against Me!, Jordan's 1st Choice

Tell me how could you compromise
Yourself like this?
Tell me how could you blame anyone else
When you aren't really committed?
Tell me where was your head
When you broke that promise to yourself?
The one where you don't forget
Every life lesson that happened before your eyes
So you don't wake up to regret she's gone years away
You had hopes and dreams of a day
Where everything, everything, everything would come together
You wouldn't have to be so scared
[Chorus]
Are we just working till a day we decide we've had enough?
All alone
We were strong enough
To be sick of it
And put them back in their fucking place
We never asked for this responsibility
We were never in this...
Together...
The reality that you know
Is just behind your idea
Of society, security and self
Am i just fucked up?
Cause i can't remember the last time any of this made sense
The last time i could stand up to myself
Street faces all blend into one
They ask for spare a change
Am i forgetting what it looks like from the other side?
Have i forgotten where i've come from?
[Chorus]
