

Agnes Carlsson, My everything

They say that life is always changing
And love comes and goes
Wherever time may finally take us
Oh, heaven only knows
People can go apart
Lately you seem so far
Maybe the sun sets every day
But don't slip away
You are my everything
You are my dreams come true
Oh, baby, how I love you
You are my everything
Wherever life may take us through
I don't want to lose you
I wake up early in the morning
And I watch you sleep
I pray for all the lies between us (Yes, I do)
May time safely keep
Without the day that comes
With every setting sun
Don't let the dark take a stop
Don't let our dreams touch the ground
You are my everything
You are my dreams come true
Oh, baby, how I love you
You are my everything
Wherever life may take us through
I don't want to lose you
The road of life may twist and turn
There's so many bridges to cross
Don't let our love be lost
You are my everything (Yes, you are)
Oh, you're my dream come true
You are my everything
Wherever life may take us through
I don't want to lose you
Oooh, you are my everything
Oh, yes you are
You're my everything
I don't want to lose you
