

Agraceful, Revelations

For this is for all that is mine
The sinners have been saved
And the saints have been damned to this world
For Your hands create a better fate
The sins that you made are washed away
And I pray to God He keeps you calm
The sins that you made are washed away
And again I heard Him say
At Your hands deliver me
But son you can wake up
The walls you built have been brought down
We came from His hands
But son you can wake up now
The walls that you built have been brought down
The sinners and saints have been damned
To this world and creations of two
Hollow vessels you've grown to love
