

Ahimsa Sunrise, Athena's Song

Athena
I guess you never lie
I guess you never lie
These reasons why I'm leaving
I guess you never lie
This place is solitude
I'm sure that
You like me to
Your face and body are killer for my eyes and what they feed from
The reasons why I'm leaving
I guess you never lie
I guess you never
These reasons why I'm leaving you
Smeared black photos kill the past
Enormity like Beauty
You're the beast
As I feast my eyes upon her
I can, I could be like you I could Now
Never
On my shoulder, the smeared black eyeliner
Cause we are the ones that tore through the cape
Still I found a way
Hearts, Pitch black Athena
