

Aidan Bissett, Out Of My League

She was sitting on the sofa
Lookin' like a supernova
She don't know what I been thinking in my head

And when she talks about her boyfriend wanna drink a little poison
Cause I know it should be me instead of him

It's killing me slowly
This will we or won't we
I'm losing my mind
Should I let it go

She's fresh out the shower
In only a towel and
I'm losin' my mind
Cause she doesn't know

She's so out of my league
I'm fallin' again, again, again, again
I don't really believe
That we can be friends again, again, again

I'm falling again, again, again

She's so high above me
Wonder if she'll ever love me
Wonder if I'll ever wake up next to her

Drive her home like every weekend
Keep pretending that we're just friends
Every moment that we're wasting kinda hurts

It's killing me slowly
This will we or won't we
I'm losing my mind
Should I let it go

She's fresh out the shower
In only a towel and
I'm losin' my mind
Cause she doesn't know

She's so out of my league
I'm fallin' again, again, again, again
I don't really believe
That we can be friends again, again, again

I'm falling again, again, again

She's so out of my league
I'm fallin' again, again, again, again
I don't really believe
That we can be friends again, again, again

She's so out of my league
She's so out of my league
