

Aidan Hawken, Somebody Else

What'cha got, what'cha got, that no one else does?
You pretend, you pretend your somebody else.
I cant buy, I cant buy, what your trying to sell.
Take a look, take a long, long look at your self.
I was thinking about your suicide,
And I can never seem to make you stay.
It's winter again and your so far away,
Like a summer day.
Do you really believe, your just like the stars?
And you know, your just like the stars.
What's your name, what's your name, what are you calling yourself?
You know you like your tryin' to be somebody else.
Well I can act, I can act like I'm your best friend, yeah.
You just dart, you just darted over again.
I was thinking about your suicide,
And I can never seem to make you stay.
It's winter again and your so far away,
Like a summer day.
Do you really believe, your just like the star's?
Good luck, good luck, good luck with yourself.
Good luck with yourself.
Good luck, good luck, good luck with yourself, honey.
Good luck, good luck, good luck with yourself, yeah.
Good luck, good luck, good luck with yourself, sing it.
Good luck, good luck, good luck with yourself.
Good luck with yourself, good luck with yourself
