

Aiden, So Far Away

Misery, come take me,
Into a place I can't forget.
We'll take comfort in the solace of regret,
Misery come take me.
I said I'm ready, now where's your hat?
It's a million miles away from here, take my hand.

You're so perfect, so perfectly inept!

So far away are you with me
Will the music light, will the music light the day?

Misery, I'm with thee.
In this beautiful loneliness,
And your legacy will last a lifetime, my regret.

You're so perfect, so perfectly in death!

So far, far away are you with me?
Will the music light, will the music light the day?
