

Aiden, World By Storm

Sometimes when fear strikes home we hit back hard now with a vengeance all our own
The slate has been wiped clean
My eyes have been opened up I feel the pride pushed away and bad feelings stop I know now I feel it coming

Here we go Standing side by side
right through the door
World by storm They'll syndicate and complicate this war
World by storm
We're standing side by side right through the

Dissintegrate-Follow me
Now I see
Now I see the truth Dissintegrate-Follow me
Now I see
Now I see it's you

The bridges burned have been swept away
The past has been erased our minds feel awake I know
The slate has been wiped clean
I wont pretend to let the world pass by and there's kids in the world who's dreams will die I know now
I feel it coming

Standing side by side
World by storm
They'll syndicate and
World by storm
right through the
