

Air Supply, Give Me Love

I'm tired enough ooh I'm tired
And I feel so weighed down
I don't want failure while my whole life waits around
I need a love just like the rest
And I've waited now so long
I don't take what I can
So I don't find love within Ooh give me a chance to show some affection
Let something show
I'm the one that said it I'm the one that needs you now

Ooh give me love
Give me love and laughter
Give me love, love, love and laughter
Give me love, give me love and laughter
Give me love, love, love and laughter

I'm with you now and that's all right
But I need some more than your touch
Show me where your heart lies
Now I feel like letting loose
I could fall so easy for you
And I wouldn't even try
Your love lies lost in me
Keep on kissing mine goodbye

Ooh say the words say get lonely just let me know
You never will regret it
And you'll never be lonely again

Ooh give me love
Give me love and laughter
Give me love, love, love and laughter
Give me love, give me love and laughter
Give me love, love, love and laughter

Love don't take it away
Don't throw it away
On somebody I know there's no one else who needs you more than me

Ooh give me love
Give me love and laughter
Give me love, love, love and laughter
Give me love, give me love and laughter
Give me love, love, love and laughter
