

Air Traffic, Time Goes By

As time goes by
you break the spell
and tell everyone
but I cant describe
this feeling inside
its bringin me down
we talk all night
and into the day
til there's no more to say and when we're all done you say it's been fun
but it's better this way
its you that I need
its you that I need
its you
i'm sure it's always been (x2)
times roll out
i'm losing control
I wish there's was more but those winds winds won't wait like tears on my face
they're rolling away
its you that I need
its you that I need
its you
all the love that we have you let it all down (x2)
its you that I need
its you that I need
its you
i'm sure it's always been (x2)
