

Airbase, Wonders

feat. Floria Ambra

It is late Monday AM

Just another dodgy day

Its casual and beautiful

It is the sweetest symphony

And its made for you and me

Its sensual and beautiful

I dont know what to believe in

These wonders I wonder

Could theyve been taken too seriously?

So I dont dare to believe

I fear all these wonders, may I just trust you and me?

So what do I dare to believe?

All this beauty underneath

Its so deceptively sweet

All I need is you inside me

Its not always what it seems

An illusionary steam

All I need is you and me

I dont know what to believe in

These wonders I wonder

Could theyve been taken too seriously?

So I dont dare to believe

I fear all these wonders, may I just trust you and me?

So what do I dare to believe?

Its just a little wonder that I have

By turning myself to you, Ill be all right

No wonder I have lost myself through time

This sneaky little wonder makes me go out of my mind

Out of my mind
