

Airlock, The Other Way

I am small but I can see
I am weak but I can feel
You do what you want to do
You say what you want to say
And then when the times are bad
You're down upon your knees
Is it too much to empathize
Just realize

And he will break through you
And he will break through you
To go to the other end
He will follow you

Who's telling me
Who's telling me
Why tell me
To look the other way

Who's telling me
Who's telling me
Why tell me
To look the other way

We seem to talk far too much
And I find myself asking where has all the love gone
You know so well how to hate
You know so well how to complicate

Who's telling me
Who's telling me
Why tell me
To look the other way

Who's telling me
Who's telling me
Why tell me
To look the other way

And he will break through you
And he will break through you
To go to the other end
He will follow you

Who's telling me
Who's telling me
Why tell me
To look the other way

Who's telling me
Who's telling me
Why tell me
To look the other way

I am small but I can see
I am weak but I can feel

I am small but I can see
I am weak but I can feel

I am small but I can see
I am weak but I can feel
