

Aislin, Countless Dreams

Don't doubt me yet. Because I, still have dreams.
And I'd give, and I've give anything.
It's my life, and you were the greatest motivation I ever had.
There's a countless amount of rooftops out there grab one make yours,
we did, there is faith, it's in your hands,
don't let anyone prevent you from getting there, make it your life.
Grab a rooftop and make it yours. We all have dreams.
Lets give three cheers for chasing our dreams.
