

Al Green, Too Much

Can I have a kiss?
Can I have a touch?
It's too much baby
I don't wanna hold you back
Your smiling face
Your lips on mine
Your love divine
Oh, it's too much baby
Listen, I wanna say
That's it's too much
Too much for me
Come on now
Oh baby, too much baby
Too much for me
I gotta say, ooh
Your smilin' face
Your lips on mine
Talkin' about a love divine
It's too much, oh
Everyday feel like Sunday
And your smile is something I can't fathom
It's just too much, I love you too much, just
I can't keep holdin' you back, it's
Your love is way too much
Baby, I said it's too much
Girl, it's too much, oh hey
I was one step closer
To your arms from mine
I feel your love so divine
It, it, it, it, it, it, it, it's Just, just, just, just, just, too, too much
Too much for me
I, I want to take you in my arms
Just one more time I'm askin'
Give me your love
I don't need no hug
It's too much
Too much for me
Oh, that love's just
It is too much
Oh now, it's too much for me
Baby, it's too much
