

Alabama, A Better Word For Love

A Better Word For Love
(Al Anderson / Gary Nicholson)

Heres another morning
Soon shell be waking up
I watched her and wonder
If theres a better word for love

So many times Ive told her
It never seems enough
So I keep searching
For a better word for love

Moaning, stumbling, wondering
When I find a way
Cos I know she knows
Theres nothing more to say

Tonight when Im out walking
Ill asked the stars above
If out there somewhere
Theres a better word for love

Moaning, stumbling, wondering
When I find a way
Cos I know she knows
Theres nothing more to say

So heres another morning
Soon shell be waking up
I guess Ill just hold her tight
Til theres a better word for love
I guess Ill just hold her tight
Til theres a better word for love
