Alabama, Richard Petty Fans

Before he ever made the headlines Or won the Winston cup He survived his share of crashes But he never did give up

The tracks in Carolina
Where all the Pettys ran
What kept the motors running
Way back then, were you the fans

He won seven at Daytona It was STP and forty-three King Richard is a legend And he's a hero to me

When he wins he waves his hand To the folks up in the stand And he is dedicated To all the Nascar fans

Well, I wish this year could last forever But the race must go on He'll hang up his helmet But he never will be gone

I know he'll drive forever In the heart of every fan And he will be remembered As the best that's ever been...
