

Alabaster Box, Is There Anyone There

--VERSE 1--

Is there anyone there
Who feels the same as me
Is there anyone there
Who's been brought to their knees
And they'd give their life
For one more chance
To touch You like they should

PRE-CHROUS

And guilt falls on me like the rain
But I won't give myself away

CHORUS

Cause I want You
To take me as I am
And whisper in my ear that You love me
Cause I want You
Forgiveme where I stand
Wrap me in your arms again

VERSE 2

Is there anyone there
Who's living in the past
Is there anyone there
Who's sick of coming last
And they'd give their life
For one more chance
