

Alain Clark, Whatever

I would always try and get it all
Put it on the bag and bet it all now,
But no dice
Nothing that I did was good enough
If I wasn't reaching for the stars
Cause now the story of my life,

I say: Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever
I don't worry about things the way I did before.
I say: Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever
I won't let it all fool me anymore!

I couldn't let slide what people said
Several inner voices in my voice,
And now I don't slow down (don't slow, don't slow)
And everybody's else's eyes on me
Couldn't take my disguise of me
And I, I turn it around!

I say: Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever
I don't worry about things the way I did before.
I say: Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever
I won't let it all fool me anymore!

Take me for a ride,
Tie to me to a stone,
Tell me a dreamer, and leave me all alone!
Praise me into glory,
And caress me if you want to,
Tell me who I am

Tell me who

Whatever, whatever, whatever
I won't let it all,
Can't let it all,
Fool me anymore!

I say: Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever
I don't worry about things the way I did before.
I say: Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever
I won't let it all fool me anymore!
