

Alamo Race Track, Chocolate Years

You'll be here with me
Into a life you'll see
You'll be here with me
Down the chocolate years you'll see
I need you to be with me
For my life's so cold
You'll be here with me
Find yourself in me
For there is nothing here to recall
The life once left for me
Need you to be with me
Need you to comfort me
I'll take you away with me

From a life so cold
I'll take you away with me
(repeat)
