Life

Life's a bitch, and I can't take it anymore,
Life's full of shit, and i don't wanna' live this bore.
Whay is life so bad for me?
Why is life as bad as it can be?
Why should I take time to do nothing?
And why won't the good life 7make my cell phone ring?

Chours

'Cause I, I wanna' live the life I wanna',
I want it as good as it can be.
N' if I don't get the life I wanna',
I wanna' go and be set free.

Life, yes I know it's out to get me,
Life, it's my own worst enemy.
Why am I the one life likes to pick on?
Why does my life make me wanna' yawn?
Why can't life go bother someone else?
And why can't my pain go to everybody else?

Chours

When will my life turn around and show me the good?
When will my life stop bein' a bore and be fun like it should?
When will my life finally have a reason?
When will the good life finally stop teasin'?
When will my life be the one I desire?
And when can I set this damn world on fire?
