Alanis Morissette, Mary Jane (Acoustic)

What's the matter Mary Jane, had a hard day as you place the don't disturb sign on the door you lost your place in line again, what a pity you never seem to wanna dance anymore it's a long way down on this rollercoaster the last chance streetcar went off the track and you're on it

I hear you're counting sheep again Mary Jane what's the point of trying to dream anymore? I hear you're losing weight again Mary Jane do you ever wonder who you're losing it for?

well it's full speed baby in the wrong direction there's a few more bruises if that's the way you insist on heading please be honest Mary Jane are you happy? please, don't censor your tears you're the sweet crusader and you're on your way you're the last great innocent and that's why I love you so take this moment Mary Jane and be selfish and worry not about the cars that go by cause all that matters Mary Jane is your freedom so keep warm my dear, keep dry tell me, tell me what's the matter Mary Jane? tell me
