

Alastor, Crawling

Have you ever found yourself walking in the dark
Have you ever felt this way, crawling full of scars
Deep wounds instead of eyes will let me see you through
To feel you... To hear you... To know your words are true
With a blindfold on my face I'm striving to survive
Feeling helpless, bathed in blood, stitches on my eyes
This endless pain I feel shall help me grow in strength
Won't kill me... Defeat me... Don't you think my friend

Crawl... Crawl... I wanna see you crawl
I wanna taste your blood, feel my domination
Crawl... Crawl... I wanna see you crawl
I wanna smell your fear, see your resignation

You're crawling full of scars, I can see you bleed
You're paralyzed with fear, taste my clenched fist
Crawl... Crawl... I wanna see you crawl
Crawl!

With every hit I take, with every single blow
Come closer, look at me... Watch my anger grow
What you are is nothing... Nothing in my eyes
And I don't give a fuck if you ever realize
What you are is nothing, nothing in my eyes!

Crawl... Crawl... I wanna see you crawl
I wanna taste your blood, feel my domination
Crawl... Crawl... I wanna see you crawl
I wanna smell your fear, see your resignation

You're crawling full of scars, I can see you bleed
You're paralyzed with fear, taste my clenched fist
Crawl... Crawl... I wanna see you crawl
Crawl!
