

Albert Hammond, The Peacemaker

Get out
damn it

Close the door
don't slam it

Let me be alone a while
To give my nerves a rest.

Whatever you do I love you

No matter what you do I love you

And I want to run out after you
But I don't know what's best.

If you will take good care of me
I'll be your caretaker
You'll be the maker of the peace
And I'll be the peacemaker
If you will take good care of me
I'll be your caretaker
You'll be the maker of the peace
And I'll be the peacemaker.

Hours
later

I hear the key in the front door

We look each other in the eye
A timid sorry pair.

There's a little more conversation

A little more conversation

A battle's lost and a war is won
I think we've cleared the air.

If you will take good care of me . . .
