

Aldo Nova, Foolin' Yourself

So long, it's sad to say but you're only foolin' yourself
So long, I'm glad you're happy that way
But you're only foolin' yourself
I saw you walk down the street with somebody new
It's funny, people I meet they talk about me and you, yeah
But who's to blame for our being apart, or is it me or is it you?
And who's to say that you're still in my heart
'Cause now really the best I can do, is say
So long, it's sad to say but you're only foolin' yourself
So long, I'm glad you're happy that way
But you're only foolin' yourself
You're just foolin' yourself
It's funny I couldn't see, the change you went through
All the new friends that you'd meet and the places they took you to, yeah
And all you could say, you would say, They're just my friends
And you'd laugh in my face 'cause you knew
And I'd never know where you'd been late at night
So now really the best I can do, is say
So long, it's sad to say but you're only foolin' yourself
So long, I'm glad you're happy that way
But you're only foolin' yourself, oh yeah
So now you walk down the street with somebody new
It's funny, people I meet, they don't talk about me and you, no more
But who was to blame for our being apart, is it me or is it you?
And who would've said, that you were in my heart
'Cause now really the best I can do is, say
So long, well it's sad to say but you're only foolin' yourself
So long, I'm glad you're happy that way
But you're only foolin' yourself
So long, it's sad to say but you're only foolin' yourself
So long, I'm glad you're happy that way
But you're only foolin' yourself
You're just foolin' yourself
You're foolin' yourself, you're foolin' yourself
You're foolin' yourself, you're foolin' yourself
