

Alec Benjamin, Dopamine Addict

Six months clean off the dopamine
Throw my phone through the wall
My friends can't get a hold of me
Just a dial tone when they call

Chills and sweats comin' over me
And I'm aching from the withdrawal
This chemistry has got a hold of me
Got a hold of me, got a hold of me

I'm a dopamine addict, I can't break the habit
Runs in my head, psychosomatic
I stare in the mirror, hide in the attic
Cry in my bed, I'm a dopamine addict
And I feel like I'm out of touch
Keep thinkin' I need that crutch
Keep thinkin' I need that rush
I just can't break the habit, can't break the habit
Runs in my head, dopamine addict

I have these dreams where I'm me again
And they almost feel like they're real
It's as if I have self-esteem again
It's as if I'm starting to heal

The chills and sweats grab a hold of me
And they pull me out of my dream
They just won't seem to let go of me
To let go of me, to let go of me

I'm a dopamine addict, I can't break the habit
Runs in my head, psychosomatic
I stare in the mirror, hide in the attic
Cry in my bed, I'm a dopamine addict
And I feel like I'm out of touch
Keep thinkin' I need that crutch
Keep thinkin' I need that rush
I just can't break the habit, can't break the habit
Runs in my head, dopamine addict

The psycho is doomed
Your psycho re-used
And then up the potency
The psycho is doomed
Your psycho re-used
It just won't let go of me
Won't let go of me, got a hold of me

I'm a dopamine addict, I can't break the habit
Runs in my head, psychosomatic
I stare in the mirror, hide in the attic
Cry in my bed, I'm a dopamine addict
And I feel like I'm out of touch
Keep thinkin' I need that crutch
Keep thinkin' I need that rush
I just can't break the habit, can't break the habit
Runs in my head, dopamine addict
