

Alesha Dixon, Don't Ever Let Me Go

In life the things that we try don't work the first time
It's okay, you've gotta start again, rewind the tape babe
Get paid, yeah you made a mistake, but you're telling the story
It's okay, take a break cos tomorrow's a brand new day

So I'm looking high in every place
And following everything within my heart
Thought I could make a difference
I feel like I am falling from the start

Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go

It's hard to say this but
I feel I've fallen down, fallen down, fallen down
It's hard to say this babe, feel the time has come around
Waited too long, waited far too long

So I'm looking high in every place
And following everything within my heart
Thought I could make a difference
I feel like I am falling from the start

Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go

And I'm just cool, so cool
Just the way I like it
Cool, yea-e-ah, so cool

Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go
Don't baby ever let me go
