

Alessi, As Far As I'm Concerned

I might say the meanest things
Sometimes I'm not much company
There's no rearranging
my feelings remain the same
I'd have no other way
You bring on the night
Chasing our dreams as we climb
It's what life's about
And if I may say
As far as I'm concerned,
You belong to me
I know times I've neglected you
And for this, I apologize
There's no reservations,
My feelings will never change
I'd have it no other way
Chasing our dreams
Together as time passes by
It's what life's about, and if I may say
As far as I'm concerned,
You belong to me
Chorus:
Give me tomorrow,
Give me every time you wake
I need your gentleness
There'll be no emptiness
Give me forever,
Give me every time you cry
I need your gentleness
There'll be no emptiness
I know times I've neglected you
And for this, I apologize
There's no rearranging
my feelings remain the same
Girl, you belong to me
(Chorus)
