

Alessi, Avalon

I'm not cryin', there somethin' in my eyes
But i won't deny you're not leavin' much behind
Tell me why can't we enjoy this final day
The thrut of it is,
We've still got time to laugh
But no one's laughing
Avalon
Your beauty shines
I'll turn every night for Avalon
It appears
A family is your final goal
You've gotta reach out and take
Your next step
Or it's running away
Oh but anyway
Avalon you make me rich
And though our dreams have passed away
We will live forever
Avalon
Your beauty shines
I'll turn every night for Avalon
And it's true
I guess I'll always love you
I'll turn every night for Avalon
Ooh I'm guessin' the time wasn't right
Time wasn't right
Ooh I'm guessin' the time wasn't right
For Avalon
Avalon
Your beauty shines
I'll turn every night for Avalon
