

Alestorm, Voyage Of The Dead Marauder (feat. P

I am the one who bears the mark of vengeance
Branded on my skin
I am the one who sails the endless horizon
To the land that lies within
I am the one who died, so many years ago
You know this surely to be true
I am the hunger you no longer feel
I am the voice inside of you

Cross the void
Voyage to the other side

Sail away, dead marauder
Stormy seas guide your way
We are yet to see another golden day
Your star will never fade
Never stray, dead marauder
From the path you have made
Til we meet again to make the final raid
Destroy the ashes of the world

Across the threshold of eternity
We'll travel hand in hand
One last voyage to the Unfamiliar land

For many years I carved a path of destruction
Across the raging seas
For many years I sought to find the answer
But the truth escaped from me

Lost to time
Are the answers you will never find

Sail away, dead marauder
Stormy seas guide your way
We are yet to see another golden day
Your star will never fade
Never stray, dead marauder
From the path you have made
Til we meet again to make the final raid
Destroy the ashes of the world

I have seen the coming darkness drift across the land
I have seen your proud ambitions slip away like sand
I have seen the end of things that have not come to be
I will be the dead marauder, pirate of the seas

Sail away
Stormy seas will guide your way
Cross the void
Voyage to the other side

Sail away, dead marauder
Stormy seas guide your way
We are yet to see another golden day
Your star will never fade
Never stray, dead marauder
From the path you have made
Til we voyage down below the waves
To lands that lie beyond the grave and
Meet again to make the final raid
