

Alex Kunnari, Eternity

I can feel you watching me
Peeking with those eyes of innocence
I keep breathing silently
When you're holding me
Like no one else
There's the world between us
I should be strong
but how can I forget your words?
Do you believe in goodluck?
What we can do?
Are we sailing on the wings?
Eternity, eternity, the eternity
I can feel you watching me
Peeking with those eyes of innocence
I keep breathing silently
When you're holding me
Like no one else
There's the world between us
I should be strong
but how can I forget your words?
Do you believe in goodluck?
What we can do?
Are we sailing on the wings?
Eternity, eternity, the eternity, eternity, eternity
I don't know where if we going wrong
Nothing else matters but you are so far and I'm still waiting for you Eternity...
