

Alex Lloyd, Everybodies Laughing

white wash the whole world down while I stand on peaceful ground with you my faith entrusted in your soul sun sets on a rainy day well good bad will come what may with me and I want to give and I

oh well we all must live
and I'll
open up when everybody's laughing

so loud in decibels
I need the world to tell I'd go with you on a road to nowhere sweet music in the back of my mind

I'm coming home this time to you
you make me feel good

and I
and I'll

and I
and I'll
